GARDEN BOOKS

So many of our friends write to us about their garden problems, which at best can be discussed only with brevity in a letter, that we have selected a few good books that we can recommend as reliable sources of complete information on the various branches of floriculture, landscape gardening, etc.; and we shall be glad to send any of these books by mail postpaid at the publishers' price as quoted. We believe every gardener will find these books as useful and necessary to his work as are the tools he has in daily use.

MODERN DAHLIA CULTURE—By W. H. Waite, the originator of Jersey's Beauty. Undoubtedly much of the enthusiasm over dahlia culture throughout the country is due to the successful results which growers have obtained by following the advice and suggestions given in this book. 132 pages, with 25 half-tone illustrations and 4 in full color. Gives information regarding culture, propagation, insects, diseases and remedies, shipping, packing, storing, soils, fertilizers, societies, shows, etc. Handsome green cloth binding, gold stamped. Postpaid, $1.65.

ROCK GARDEN PRIMER—By Archie Thornton. A most complete and practical work for those who are contemplating the making of a rock garden, or who are looking for advice which will help them increase the beauty and effectiveness of one they may already have. 152 pages, 70 illustrations and 4-color plates. Bound in imitation leather. Postpaid, $2.15.

THE BOOK OF PERENNIALS—By Prof. Alfred C. Thoroughly covers the best methods of handling over 100 separate species of annual flowering plants. 182 pages, 155 illustrations. Cloth bound. Postpaid, $1.65.

THE BOOK OF PERENNIALS—By Prof. Alfred C. Hottes. A companion book to the above. Treats of over 125 species of perennials and hardy herbaceous plants. Fully illustrated. Cloth bound. Postpaid, $1.65.

THE COMPLETE HOME LANDSCAPE—By Arthur J. Jennings and Leonard H. Johnson. A book that is indispensable to every home owner who wants to beautify his grounds in the most approved manner. 178 pages, 114 illustrations. Cloth bound. Postpaid, $2.65.

PRACTICAL LANDSCAPE GARDENING—By Robert B. Cridland. Tells how to plan and plant both small and large plots. Thoroughly covers every problem presented to the home owner in regard to the best method of ornamenting his grounds. Fully illustrated. Cloth bound. Postpaid, $2.65.

THE SMALL NURSERY—By Nelson Coon. Many of our patrons not only grow dahlias for sale, but wish to add to their line of plants, to develop a small nursery for local trade. To such this book will give much valuable advice and information that is almost indispensable.

Complete descriptive catalog of all De La Mare Garden Books will be sent free upon application.

Special Dahlia Collections for 1931

We have limited ourselves to five special collections this year, presenting those varieties that have been most in demand both at our gardens and among our customers throughout the country. All of these bargain offers are real bargains in every sense of the word, and we believe no better values can be found anywhere this year.

DAHLIA COLLECTION No. 3. Six Wonderful Dahlias for the Show Garden and Cut Flowers, $1. postpaid.

For the past three years this collection has been our leader, and we really believe it represents the greatest value we have ever offered. The excellent range of colors, together with the profusion of large size blooms, makes it a most desirable assortment for any garden.

- 1 Bertha Horne—a bronzy yellow and apricot hybrid cactus. awarded Certificate of Merit by the American Dahlia Society.
- 1 Diana—an immense crimson and violet reflex cactus.
- 1 Darlene—an older variety, but still one of the finest shell pink decoratives.
- 1 Sebastipol—a wonderful deep orange decorative—one of the late Luther Burbank's best.
- 1 Swift—a massive sulphur yellow decorative.
- 1 Aurore—a rich deep bronzy apricot and orange decorative-peony-flowered dahlia that a prominent grower describes as "one of the most attractive dahlias in his collection—a close rival to Patrick O'Mara, and perhaps a little better."

Washington C. H., Ohio—Enclosed find One Dollar for which please send me your Collection No. 2. I had your Collection No. 3 last year and had beautiful, big flowers.

Oxford, N. J.—I wish to thank you for your Price List. This is my third year buying Dahlia tubers from your gardens. I have told my friends of your fair dealings and healthy tubers. Please mail your Collection No. 2, price $1. which I enclose herewith. Wishing you the best of success.

Melrose, Mass.—My mother, Mrs. ----- of Perry, Maine. received last year a very lovely assortment of dahlia tubers from you. I am enclosing One Dollar for which please send me a similar assortment. Her order No. 672.

DAHLIA COLLECTION No. 11. Six Beautiful Dahlias, especially for Cut Flowers, $1. postpaid.

The dahlias included in this collection are all standard sorts which are always in demand among florists for cut flower purposes. Even if you are specializing in the newer sorts, you will want these varieties to complete your assortment.

- 1 Lawine—a free blooming white cactus.
- 1 Libelle—a rich dark lavender cactus.
- 1 Frank A. Walker—a clear pink decorative.
- 1 Oregon Beauty—one of the finest red decoratives grown. Good size, free bloomer, wonderful color.
- 1 Maude Adams—one of the most widely grown show dahlias. White suffused pink.
- 1 Yellow Duke—the very best yellow show dahlia.

Berkeley, Calif.—Enclosed find stamps for $1.25 to pay for Collection No. 3 and one Maude Adams (No. 311) to be shipped as soon as you please. I wish to say that your dahlias of last year were wonderful.

Iona, Idaho—Just a word in thanks to you for the lovely dahlias I had from you last year and the year before. When I would look at them, which was from six to ten times a day, I would wonder which was the most beautiful, but would have to say, as one man said to me, "If I were judging them, I should give them all a Blue Ribbon."

DAHLIA COLLECTION No. 2. Four World's Best Dahlias for Garden and Exhibition purposes. $1. postpaid.

These varieties still hold the lead among the very best dahlias in cultivation. No garden is complete without this collection.

- 1 Bonnie Brae—a mammoth cream suffused pink decorative. This was the best seller at our gardens this past season. A very beautiful dahlia, under both natural and artificial light.
- 1 Mrs. I. de Ver Warner—giant orchid lavender decorative. One of the leading dahlia growers once said that if he were to grow but one dahlia, this would be the one.
- 1 Patrick O'Mara—apricot, yellow and orange decorative. Has long been considered the best autumn tint dahlia.
- 1 Pride of California—a large red decorative. Favorite among florists.

Rochester, Minn.—Enclosed find check for $1. Please send Collection No. 3. Last spring Mrs.----- of Douglas, Minn., sent to you for Dahlia roots, and I took two of them, Mrs. I. de Ver Warner and Pride of California, and I had such good luck with them that I want some more different colors. The blossoms were the largest and most beautiful I have ever seen, and all who saw them said the same. They also asked me where I got them. The blossoms measured ten inches across. I have had dahlias for years, but yours inspire one to have more and better ones.

Notasulga, Ala.—Enclosed find $1. for which please send me your Collection No. 2. I got this collection last year and was very much pleased with them.

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Enclosed herewith $2.35 for which please send Bashful Giant, Mina Burtle, Jersey's Beauty, and Collection No. 2. Prompt delivery will be greatly appreciated as it is dahlia planting time in this locality. This collection is a new one this year, and we believe it will meet with the same popular favor as our Collection No. 2. It consists of those great big, giant blooming varieties that will win the prize for you in almost any show.

If you want a collection of dahlias that will make your garden the outstanding feature in your community, or if you want to start in the "dahlia business," for the purpose of selling either cut-flowers or tubers, we know of no assortment that will meet your requirements so perfectly as this collection. And at the extremely low price quoted this year for the entire assortment, we are sure you could make no better investment in this line. Twenty varieties, all of them the best in their class, one tuber of each variety, all carefully wrapped and labelled, delivered to any address in the United States for only $4.—an average of only twenty cents per tuber. Can you beat it?

Clifton Forge, Va.—Enclosed is my check for $10. for which please send me your very special $10. offer, consisting of Collections 1, 2, 3, 11 and 10, and the enclosed list of 8 tubers, making in all 50 tubers. My dahlias were the wonder and admiration of this community last year, although everyone said it was a poor year of this particular flower.

Laredo, Mo.—Enclosed find $8. for which please send me 3 Collections No. 2 and one Collection No. 10. I ordered the Collection No. 2 last year and had such fine dahlias. They all did fine except Patrick O'Mara which never came up, but I thought I had my money's worth, so never bothered to send it back.

Tipton, Mo.—I am enclosing draft for $2. for which kindly send me your Dahlia Collections No. 2 and 3. I have been planting your dahlias now for two or three years, and have always found them highly satisfactory.

A VERY SPECIAL $7.50 OFFER

For $7.50, we will send one of each of the above five collections, a total of forty tubers. You may already have some of the varieties included in these collections, and in case you do not care for duplicates, your friends will be glad to take such tubers at regular prices, thus giving you the other varieties at greatly reduced prices.

Please do not ask us to break or alter collections.

MAKE YOUR GARDEN PAY

A Special Proposition for This Year

We have started a number of our customers in the dahlia business, enabling them to make a nice little profit from their gardens through the sale of both cut flowers and tubers. If you want to follow the same line, we will send you three of each of the five collections listed above, and include one tuber of each Laura Morris and Jane Cowl—the two most popular varieties of recent introduction, at our own gardens—122 tubers in all—for $25.

This planting should yield for you 50 dozen cut flowers, which should sell readily at 50c to $1. per dozen—besides 500 or more tubers which should sell for 25c to 50c or more each.

Where else can you invest $25. and earn such a profit? Why not make your flower garden a source of profit as well as of pleasure? The above assortment will make a complete list that cannot be surpassed by any grower.

THE PERFECT YELLOW DAHLIA

400	Laura Morris (Relyea—W. D. G.) This wonderful dahlia was originated by Mr. Geo. A. Relyea, of Connecticut, and introduced by us in 1929; and after three seasons' growing, we do not hesitate in offering it as the largest and by all means the finest yellow decorative we have ever seen. The plant is a rank grower, not affected by thrip or hot weather, a profuse bloomer on long, strong stems, and a remarkably good root maker for such a large flower. Giant blooms, 9 to 10 inches or more across, full deep center, under ordinary field culture, without disbudbing. Color a pure, rich, deep strontian yellow with back petals of amber yellow. A more attractive flower than Mrs. Scheepers, because of its much deeper color. During the past season this variety made the best showing of any yellow in our fields. Mr. Harman, of the Laurelton Dahlia Farm, Long Island, says it is "a wonderful flower, giant bloom 10 inches across, vigorous grower," etc. Mrs. Gennett, whose home is one of the show places in Asheville, N. C., refers to it as the "finest and largest yellow dahlia grown." Mrs. Kimbrough of Georgia, says "Laura Morris now has three large blooms and four buds. It is beautiful and I am proud of it, as I brought it safely through the extremely dry weather of the past summer, and now I am being rewarded with beautiful flowers." Price for 1931, each	3.00

NOTE—Other varieties listed by us in previous editions of our catalog can still be supplied, but in limited quantity only, hence, many of such varieties have been omitted from this year's list.

PLACE YOUR ORDER EARLY TO AVOID DIS-APPOINTMENT. Many of the leading varieties are very short crop, because of the extreme drought of last year.

Announcement Extraordinary. You May Win This One

Mr. Relyea, the originator of Laura Morris, advises us that he has another wonderful dahlia—a seedling of Spotswood Beauty, which, according to Mr. Relyea, far surpasses its parent in both form and beauty of color. This dahlia will be on trial at our gardens this year, and all our friends are invited to call and see it under practical growing conditions. This variety will be first offered in very small quantity to our patrons in 1932, and as it is as yet unnamed, we are asking each one of our friends to suggest a name for it. The name you suggest, together with your own name and address will be written on a card, and at the end of the season these cards will be placed in a box, and the tenth card drawn out will show the name we will assign to this new dahlia; and to the person whose name appears on the card drawn we will send free of charge, with our compliments, in the spring of 1932, one tuber of this variety for trial. This plan will provide a fair means of award in case more than one person suggests the same name, when there will be but the one tuber to award. This costs you nothing, and you may win a tuber of this wonderful new dahlia on this first introduction, so send your suggestion today. Please do not suggest the name of any person prominent in public life, or anyone who is notably affiliated with any particular sect or party. Rather select your name because of its euphony and innate artistic qualities.
